

First Mid-Atlantic Region Meeting & Luncheon

February 10, 2009

10:00 AM to 1:30 PM

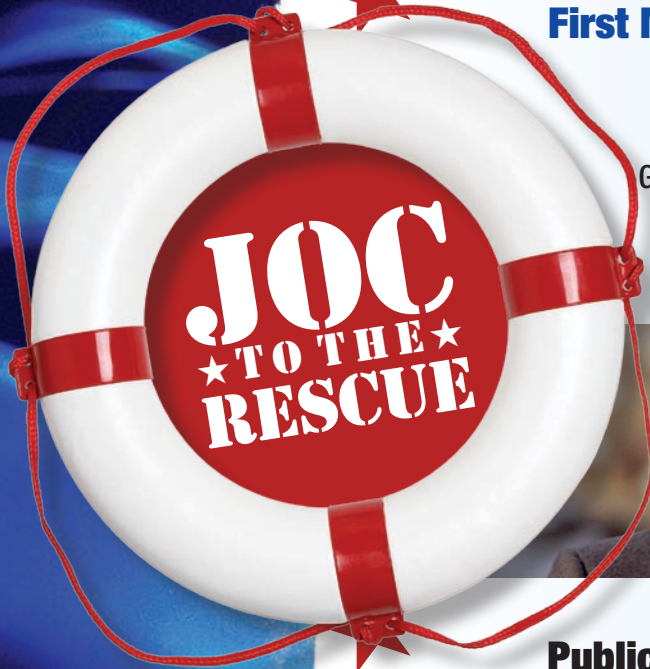

at

Georgetown University Hotel and Conference Center

SALON Room

3800 Reservoir Road, NW

Washington, DC 20057

How Job Order Contracting Helps Publicly Funded Facilities In Challenging Times

Learn how to gain control of budgets, time lines and end results on renovation and repair projects.

This workshop will explore how Job Order Contracting (JOC) is ideally suited for the renovation and repair projects undertaken by publicly funded organizations—saving them both time and money.

After the morning session, we'll discuss forming a CJE Regional Chapter over a complimentary lunch.

Agenda

10:00 AM

Welcome: A JOC User Shares Why JOC Makes Sense

10:30 AM to 12 Noon

JOC 101 - What, Why and How

- JOC Basics
- The Benefits of JOC
- Lessons Learned on How to Implement a JOC Program
- Q&A

12 Noon to 1:30 PM

CJE Regional Chapter & Lunch

- Review the goal of a regional chapter
- Establish what members would like from a regional chapter—frequency and content of meetings
- Establish dates and topics for future meetings.

R.S.V.P.

Register online at www.jocexcellence.org/signup.htm

Check the Registration Form on the Web for directions, parking and Metro access information.

E-mail for additional information at info@jocexcellence.org

REGISTRATION IS FREE!