

A Nonprofit Dedicated to Growing the Awareness of Job Order Contracting

The Center for Job Order Contracting Excellence (CJE) is a nonprofit association of leaders in the facilities and construction industries. CJE focuses its efforts on promoting successful Job Order Contracting as a program delivery method. This includes sharing best practices through meetings, conferences, and publications, and advancing understanding and awareness of JOC as a construction delivery method.

Our Vision: Total solution for Job Order Contracting industry's research, educational and deployment needs.

Our Mission: Promote a cost effective, efficient, performance-based, high quality Job Order Contracting project delivery system through development and education for the industry.

Definition of JOC: Job Order Contracting is using long-term IDIQ contracts for construction services delivered on an on call basis through firm, fixed price delivery orders based on pre-established unit prices.
